Home Learning

This home learning is for this week. While this is not compulsory, children are encouraged to complete the tasks on a weekly basis and if possible, post pictures or send examples of the work you have done on our Facebook page or email brambles@tved.org.uk.

Please continue to read daily, this is the key to future success.

Reading	Here is a link of one of my favourite authors Julia Donaldson sharing one of her books 'What the ladybird heard' through a fantastic song. The illustrator Lydia Monks (the
	•	tures) then reads Julia Donaldson's new story 'What the lady bird heard at the seaside'. Can you listen to the s
	house (or your favourite teddy) what happens and what is your favourite part? https://www.facebook.com/OfficialGruffalo/videos/916318972119980/
Writing	Using the animal from your wider curriculum work, could you draw a picture of your favourite animal and think of as many exciting adjectives as you can to describe this
The second	animal.
	Challenge: Write a short paragraph about your animal and an adventure it might go on!
	This weeks spellings are:	rude	tube
	flume		rule
		huge tune	flute
Wider	Use
Curriculum	I have enjoyed watching the Virtual Zoo days on Chester Zoo's facebook page that have introduced us to some of their animals. Why don't you take a look and then
Concolori	choose your favourite animal to make a fact file on that animal. You could think abo where it would live in the wild, what it eats and an interesting fact about it.
	I would choose a tiger, I can't wait to see which animal is your favourite! You can also find information about all Chester Zoo's animals on their website. https://www.facebook.com/chesterzoo1/ https://www.chesterzoo.org/our-zoo/animals/
Challenge	enge It is important to keep active whilst we are safe in our homes. Could you join in with Joe Wicks workout or complete a just dance routine on Youtube? You could even get a grown up to film you and send it in to the academy. We would love to see!
