Department for Education

The DfE collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities. We are required to share information about our governors with the DfE under section 538 of the Education Act 1996.

All data is entered manually on the GIAS system and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework.

The governor data that we lawfully share with the DfE via GIAS:

- will increase the transparency of governance arrangements
- will enable schools and the department to identify more quickly and accurately individuals who are involved in governance and who govern in more than one context
- allows the department to be able to uniquely identify an individual and in a small number of cases conduct checks to confirm their suitability for this important and influential role

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the requirements placed on us by the DfE including the data that we share with them, please use the hyperlink below:

<https://www.get-information-schools.service.gov.uk/Guidance/Governance>

Please Note: Some of personal data items are not publically available and are encrypted within the GIAS system. Access is restricted to a small number of DfE staff who need to see it in order to fulfil their official duties. The information is for internal purposes only and not shared beyond the department, unless the law allows it.

Requesting access to your personal data

Under UK data protection legislation, Members, Trustees and local academy representatives have the right to request access to information about them that we hold, through a Subject Access Request (SAR)

If you make a subject access request, and we hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding, and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you or your child
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

Individuals also have the right for their personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

To make SAR for your personal information, please email: DPO@tved.org.uk with Subject access request in the subject.

You also have the right to:

- Object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent processing for direct marketing
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means

- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate or incomplete personal data rectified, blocked, restricted, erased or destroyed.
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the UK Data Protection regulations

Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or if you have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with Emma Chawner, Director of Finance, Resources and Operations via email at: emma.chawner@tved.org.uk in the first instance.

You can contact the Trust's Data Protection Officer (Emma Chawner) if you have any questions, concerns or complaints or would like more information about anything mentioned in this privacy notice.
